

FRESHWATER FISH WORD FIND

Some freshwater fish prefer either cold or warm water.
Find these common warm water fish of New York State.

Carp put up a good fight when you try catching them.

Yellow perch like to hang out in weedy, shallow areas when they are young.

Pumpkinseed are a common freshwater fish. Maybe it will be your first fish.

Bluegill can be easy to identify. Look for the blue color below their gills.

Chain pickerel are named after the pattern along their bodies, which they use to hide amongst weeds.

Black crappie can get up to a foot long.

Largemouth Bass swallow their food whole, and can even eat frogs with their large mouths.

